

The Business You Were Born To Create

What work were you put on this planet to do? How can you build a successful business around that work? Bestselling author Nick Williams reveals how this is the time to start your own inspired business, doing work that you love. As well as provide you income, your inspired business can be an immensely meaningful activity which allows you to share your unique gifts, make a difference to others and serve a higher purpose. It will empower you to become the best that you can be. But this requires a different approach to work. You cant just bolt on traditional business methods to doing what you love. Being an inspired entrepreneur is about being authentic, about service, and about putting relationships first. Utilising a potent combination of ancient wisdom, spiritual insight and groundbreaking entrepreneurial thinking, Nick Williams shows you how a new way of working is possible for you, right now. Over the last two decades, Nick Williams has travelled the world sharing a life affirming - and profoundly spiritual - vision of work and entrepreneurship. A sought-after international speaker, author and broadcaster, Nick is on a mission to help people move beyond their fears, play a bigger part in their lives and turn their passions into profitable businesses. As per usual, your book is filled with pearls of wisdom. Solid and inspirational. I cant use a highlighter on it, because then I want to highlight every second line. The book departs from other texts in that it provides a sober explanation of the fear people have for their own success - the responsibility, the accountability and the attraction it brings. Additionally, it reminds us of the naysayers, pearls of negativity, and exclusion inspired entrepreneurs have to face, because they dare to be alive and different, and no longer buy into only the socially acceptable norms. --Prof Kurt April, Prof of Leadership, University of
