

From The Beatles to Botham: And All the B...s... In Between

George Timothy Hudson should, by all the rules of inheritance, have lived a righteous and unblemished life as a cotton merchant middle-class, respectable and respected. Instead he became a cricketer, leading DJ in Hollywood, rock and roll promoter, discoverer of The Moody Blues, husband of four, lover of many, Ian Bothams friend and business adviser. He has been both penniless and rich - several times.
