From the author of the On the Line and Fire on Ice hockey romance series comes a sultry novel featuring a brooding NHL player whos hell on skates and the no-nonsense woman who forces him to clean up his act. Miranda: Even though Im broke, putting myself through college, and working two jobs, Im trying to make the best of it. Meanwhile, Jake Birch, hockeys hottest bad boy, lives in a luxury hotel in downtown Chicago and still complains about every little thing in his penthouse. But after I tell him off, instead of getting me fired, Jake requests me as his personal housekeeper. Then he starts flirting with me. Only Im not flirting back ... at least, Im trying not to. Did I mention that hes hockeys hottest bad boy? Jake: Ive met the best woman at the worst possible time. Miranda is the fire to my ice a sexy, charmingly candid spark who breaks down my walls and reminds me what its like to feel again. But Im being forced to date my team owners daughter to keep my job, so I cant be caught with Miranda. Still, were getting closer until Miranda finds out about my girlfriend. And thats not the only secret Ive been keeping. But Mirandas the one I want ... even if she doesnt believe me. Praise for Brenda Rothert Brenda Rothert is absolutely going on my auto-buy list. I dont think Ive ever read such brilliantly wound sexual tension, and there were times when I was straight-up jealous of the heroine. USA Today bestselling author Lauren Layne, on Blown Away Includes an excerpt from another Loveswept title.
